James H Watson

Dear Paul:

Enclosed is the log on Jim Watson who currently is employed as a clerk at the Scout Store in Plymouth Meeting. I have called Werner Wolff to let him know. However, he was not available at the time. I will discuss this problem with him and continue to take no action until he hears from you or Paul Rose.

Watson registered as "new" in January 1984. I believe this was about the time he became employed. He may have been registered in Philadelphia prior to this.

[REDACTED] is willing and desirous of being of all help possible and it is my understanding that her mother is also willing. The mother was very angry and upset then her daughter told her that Watson was in Scouting again.

If I can be of further help please contact me.

Sincerely,

Elmer B. Greey, Jr.

CONF012623

PERSONAL & CONFIDENTIALRE: James Watson

July 20, 1984 - Received a call from [REDACTED], [REDACTED]
[REDACTED], Oreland, PA 19075; telephone - [REDACTED]

She stated that she was in the Plymouth Meeting Scout Shop and recognized Jim Watson. In 1963 or 1964 he had sexually abused her brother, [REDACTED], and another Scout. This occurred in Philadelphia in the West Oak Lane section. At that time a meeting was held between Watson, the parents (still alive) and Scout officials. Watson agreed to never associate with Scouting again. No charges were filed.

July 20, 1984, 12:05 p.m. - Called Paul Ernst; he was going to check files to see if any record was filed.

July 23, 1984, 2:10 p.m. - Called Paul Ernst. No record of Jim Watson. He will turn over all available information to Paul Rose to follow up.

I called [REDACTED] and asked her permission to forward any information to our National office. I also asked if she would collect any further information. She agreed. Her mother is available and willing to provide any details. One other youth is still in the area. [REDACTED] is going to find out if he is willing to make a statement.

2:46 p.m. - Called Philadelphia Council and spoke with Paul Crosson. This is before his tenure in Philadelphia. He is checking and will call back.

All of the above information, plus Paul Crosson's information, will be forwarded to Paul Ernst for his followup.

3:40 p.m. - Call from Paul Crosson; Philadelphia files do not go back to 1963. They have no information, records, etc. Jim Lanning was the DFS at that time; he is retired.

TO: Mr. Ray Neal - 0415

SUBJECT: James H. Watson - Plymouth Meeting Scout Shop

DISCLOSED

The situation was totally ~~disquiet~~ with Jim Watson at approximately 2:00 p.m. on Tuesday, August 6, 1984. The immediate reaction was of both shock and disbelief that allegations of this nature could have surfaced concerning himself. He expressed absolute denial of anything pertaining to the situation and, consequently, felt no need nor desire to submit his resignation.

Jim feels that allegations such as these resulting in an investigation will hurt him both personally and professionally merely by inference. He feels quite strongly that upon completion of the investigation proving his innocence, he would like something in writing which would exonerate him completely.

[REDACTED], Manager of the [REDACTED], was present and can confirm that the conversation was merely to inform him of allegations made by an outside party and that the position of the Boy Scouts of America was merely to be investigative at this point.

If any additional clarification is required, please contact me.

OBJECTIVES OF SCOUTING

The objectives of Scouting are, according to the Charter and Bylaws under which the movement operates, CHARACTER DEVELOPMENT, CITIZENSHIP TRAINING, and MENTAL and PHYSICAL FITNESS. Leaders and boys of all races, creeds, and colors subscribe to the Oath or Promise which reads in part: "On my honor I will do my best to do my duty to God and my country" and the 12th point of the Scout Law which reads: "A Scout is reverent toward God. He is faithful in his religious duties. He respects the beliefs of others."
